THE CONFERENCE OF CHAMPIONS

On July 1, 1978, the Pacific-8 Conference officially became the Pacific-10 with the admission of the University of Arizona and Arizona State University. Year-in and year-out, members of the Pacific-10 have proven to be among the most competitive schools in collegiate sports.

Entering the 1978-79 school year, Pac-10 members can boast of 143 NCAA team champions, far and away the greatest total by a single conference. Three members—USC, UCLA and Stanford—rank in the top 10 and nine of the 10 schools have at least one NCAA team title to their credit.

In 1977-78 alone, Pac-10 members won five team titles and finished second five other times (including ties). USC won two titles (baseball and outdoor track) while Oregon (cross country), California (water polo) and Stanford (tennis) took one title each. UCLA finished second in three sports (volleyball, tennis and outdoor track (tied)) while Arizona State finished second in gymnastics and baseball.

In addition, the Pac-10 compiled a record of 3-1 in post-season football games, winning the Rose, Sun and Bluebonnet Bowls while losing in the Fiesta Bowl.

Following are the NCAA titles won by each member of the Pac-10:

USC (63, first in nation): 27 in outdoor track, 12 in tennis, 11 in baseball, nine in swimming, two in indoor track, one each in volleyball and gymnastics.

UCLA (36, second in nation): 12 in tennis, 10 in basketball, six in volleyball, five in outdoor track, three in water polo.

Stanford (16, tied for seventh in nation): six in golf, four in tennis, three in outdoor track, one each in basketball, water polo and swimming.

California (10): four in water polo, two each in baseball and gymnastics, one each in basketball and outdoor track.

Oregon (9): four each in outdoor track and cross country, one in basketball.

Arizona State (5): four in baseball, one in outdoor track.

Washington State (2): one each in indoor track and boxing.

Oregon State (1): one in cross country.

Arizona (1): one in baseball.

In all, Pacific-10 schools have won 41 titles in outdoor track, 28 in tennis, 18 in baseball, 13 in basketball, 10 in swimming, eight in water polo, seven in volleyball, six in golf, five in cross country, three each in gymnastics and indoor track, and one in boxing. (All of the above totals include ties as championships).

THE 1978 BRUINS

RETURNING VETERANS — 42 returning lettermen from the 1977 team that was 7-4, tied for second in the PAC-8 and defeated Washington's Rose Bowl champions. Returnees include: Offense — 1 split end, 3 tackles, 4 guards, 3 centers, 3 quarterbacks, 5 running backs, 1 flankerback. Defense — 3 tackles, 3 inside linebackers, 2 nose guards, 3 outside linebackers, 3 cornerbacks, 4 safetymen, 1 punter, 1 place kicker. Of the returnees, the following started 1977 games: Offense — Max Montoya, lt, 11; Brent Boyd, c, 11; Jim Main, rg, 11; James Owens, lh, 11; Rick Bashore, qb, 10; Theotis Brown, rh, 7; Kent Brisbin, se, 5; Chris Elias, se, 2; Glenn Cannon, rh, 2; Bruce Davis, rt, 1; Steve Bukich, qb, 1; Scott Stauch, rh, 1. Defense — Jerry Robinson, ilb, 11; Manu Tuiasosopo, rt, 10; Kenny Easley, fs, 10; Jeff Muro, ilb, 9; Bobby Hosea, rc, 8; Billy Don Jackson, lt, 7; Johnny Lynn, ss, 7; Brian Baggott, rc, 3; Rick Obbema, ilb, 2. There have been several major changes, the most important of which appears to be that of talented Manu Tuiasosopo from defensive right tackle to nose guard, where his size, quickness and competitiveness could give the Bruins a real position of strength. Manu earned All-Coast and All-Conference first team honors and second team All-America (UPI) even though he was hampered by nagging injuries last Fall. This season could be an All-American year for him. Other position switches are Rick Obbema to offensive right guard from inside linebacker, where he started two games in '77; Chris Elias from split end, where he started two games, to outside linebacker; Scott Stauch from running back, where he started one game, to strong safety; and nose guard Marvin Morris to offensive right half. Other changes are only in the category of moving around within the defensive backfield or from one side to the other. Big offensive weapons again will be running backs James Owens, who was UCLA's leading rusher with 938 yards last season to win All-Coast and All-Conference honorable mention, and Theotis Brown, the Bruins' seventh leading rusher in school history who hopes for a banner year after missing three full games with a dislocated elbow after the '77 season opener against Houston. With a touch of luck they could be the nation's best pair of running backs. The other offensive weapon in the backfield is versatile Quarterback Rick Bashore, who missed only one starting assignment last year due to a rib injury and collapsed lung, but still rushed for 317 yards and completed 74 out of 149 passes for 1015 yards to become only the second Bruin sophomore in history to pass for more than 1000 yards. Up front big Max Montoya returns to his offensive left tackle spot, where he earned All-Pac-8 honorable mention. Center Brent Boyd comes off a mid-year foot operation and right Guard Jim Main could be as good as anyone on the Coast in '78. Other returning starters are tight End Kent Brisbin, who started five games as a split receiver, but who is really a tight end, running Back Glenn Cannon, who is coming along fast, right Tackle Bruce Davis and Qurterback Steve Bukich. Defensively, everyone in the country has eyes on two-time All American inside Linebacker Jerry Robinson. In '77 he was a unanimous selection and is the only returning All-American in '78 who can make that claim. In addition he was selected as Linebacker of the Year by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York. He has a chance of becoming the first three-time consensus All-American in the country since SMU's Doak Walker turned the trick in 1947-48-49. On top of all his other honors, he is proudest of the fact that he now has started in 23 straight Bruin games. And to give the Bruins a further All-American look, of course, Senior Manu Tuiasosopo, now a nose guard, with his strong background of football honors; free Safety Kenny Easley, All-Coast, All-Conference and 1977 A-A honorable mention and freshman Defensive Back of the Year (Football News); plus dynamic Billy Don Jackson, who started seven games at defensive left tackle in his freshman season and is now ready for the push to stardom. Pairing off with Robinson again at inside linebacker will be Jeff Muro (they were 1-3 in UCLA defensive statistics last Fall) and an excellent trio of defensive backs to match up with Easley—Cornerbacks Bobby Hosea and Johnny Lynn, plus strong Safety Brian Baggott.

LOSSES — 21 lettermen, including: Offense — 1 split end, 2 tackles, 1 guard, 1 tight end, 3 running backs, 1 flankerback. Defense — 3 tackles, 1 nose guard, 1 inside linebacker, 3 outside linebackers, 1 cornerback, 2 safetymen, 1 place kicker-punter. Starters included: Offense — Bryce Adkins, lg, 11 games, Don Pedersen, te, 11; Homer Butler, fl, 11; Gus Coppens, rt, 10; James Sarpy, se, 4; Ernie Saenz, rh, 1. Defense — Frank Stephens, olb, 11; John Fowler, olb, 11; Levi Armstrong, lc, 11; Dave Morton, lt, 5 (also 1 at rt and 3 at ng); Steve Tetrick, ng, 8; Michael Molina, ss, 3; Michael Coulter, fs, 1. It will be most difficult to quickly replace a fine trio of outside linebackers like Stephens, Fowler and Bell; this is just about Coach Terry Donahue's No. 1 priority. On offense the king- sized Gus Coppens graduated with All-Coast and All-Conference first team honors and three fine years behind him at right tackle, and tight End Don Pederson's blocking and consistently good pass-catching will be missed, to say nothing of the gaps left by departure of a super pass-receiver in Flankerback Homer Butler, who tagged 25 passes for 584 yards and four touchdowns, and the consistently capable left Guard Bryce Adkins. Defensively, besides the loss of the outside linebackers, left Cornerback Levi Armstrong, All-Coast and All-Conference, is a big loss, plus the talented and dependable services of left Tackle Dave Morton and nose Guard Steve Tetrick. Thus, it would appear that defensive losses outweigh those on offense even though the Bruins do return more starters on defense.

PROMISING SOPHOMORES — To the list of sophomores this year will be added the freshman redshirts, due to a new NCAA rule. While this latter group is not large, it helps give the UCLA squad a definitely young look. Going into the Fall of '78 the Bruins have no less than seven sophomores and one "FRS" listed in the depth chart as probable or possible starters. And this is not mentioning eight or so who have just about as good a chance of becoming a factor on the squad. Beginning at split end both Scot Tiesing, 203, 6-5¼, and Fred Brockington, 199, 6-3, are sophs and listed 1-2 for a real battle. Left Guard Larry Lee, 296, 6-2½, is listed ahead of one-year letterman Ron Davis, a 234, 6-2¼ junior. And Ricky Coffman, 187, 6-¼, freshman redshirt appears to be a good bet at flankerback. Others on offense include left Tackle Curt Mohl, right Tackle Gregg Christiansen, tight End James Forge and left Half Freeman McNeil, who could well be a super star of the future. McNeil's 5.7 rushing average last year was tops on the Bruin team, as was his 78-yard run from scrimmage against Stanford. Defensively, the "young 'uns" start with left Tackle Billy Don Jackson, 240, 6-2½, who will help give the Bruins top strength in the down line. Youth also will have its say at the outside linebacker spots, where Glenn Windom, 210, 6-2½, and Chris Elias, 213, 6-1¼ have a slight edge over Brad Plemmons, 204, 6-3½, and Senior Ken Walker. Two sophomores are also expected to hold forth at both safety spots as Kenny Easley, 202, 6-1½, retains an edge at free safety and ex-running back Scott Stauch, 185, 6-½, moves in at strong safety after the departure of Michael Molina and the versatile senior Johnny Lynn's move to left corner. To round out this young crop of fine performers to watch is freshman Redshirt Joe Gary, 250, 6-4, at left tackle with Jackson. This group will help keep the Bruins in contention for several seasons.

JUNIOR COLLEGE TRANSFERS - While there are seven listed mid-year transfer students on the Bruin roster, the most promising appear to be Larry Hall, a 198, 6-1¼ outside linebacker from Orange Coast College, and Clifton Thomas, a 174, 5-11½ left cornerback from Riverside City College. Both are juniors.

OFFENSE — Coach Terry Donahue will go even farther away from the Veer than he did last year and use what he calls the Multiple Veer. The fans will see several different "sets" and very probably an offense more balanced between running and passing.

PASSING — While the Bruins passed only slightly more in 1977 than the previous season, their touchdown and yardage production was noticeably up. This year calls for UCLA to put the ball in the air even more to make use of the talents of Quarterback Bashore, who last Fall became the second passer in UCLA to exceed 1000 yards in the air in his sophomore season. His record showed 74 completions out of 149 attempts for 1015 yards and nine touchdowns and only seven interceptions. Senior Steve Bukich hit on 14 of 24 for 228 yards, one TD and one interception while Michael Brant, now a soph hit one for one for five yards. Much of the tight end-wide receiver corps has graduated, with exception of senior Flanker Severn Reece and tight end Kent Brisbin, thus some promising but untested young talent will have a chance to prove itself. The 1977 statistics, however, show the extra benefits that running Backs James Owens and Theotis Brown give UCLA with their 31 catches between them for 281 yards and three touchdowns.

RUNNING — This is where much of UCLA's strength will be in '78, with all five of the top Bruin rushers returning to action. They include left Half James Owens, whose 938 net yards and four TD's led the Bruins last Fall, right Half Theotis Brown, who was next with 539 yards and five touchdowns when an elbow injury cut him down from his 1092 yards of the year before, Quarterback Rick Bashore and his 317 yards and four TD's, left Half Freeman McNeil, 286 yards and three TD's and the best average per play at 5.7, plus left Half Glenn Cannon, who netted 251 yards. This year the Bruins appear to have speed, depth and power; and with the switch of ex-nose guard Marvin Morris, 220, 6-0, this area appears to be even sturdier.

KICKING — UCLA's punting game suffered last season with the injury to dual purpose Frank Corral, who averaged 44.1 in '76. Frank wound up with 36.8 and Matt McFarland, now a junior, 35.3 when thrust into the breach. However, much more is expected of McFarland, along with Sophomore Mike Hammett and Freshman punter-place kicker Norm Johnson. In the PAT, field goal and kickoff department junior Kicker Peter Boermeester, who hit seven of eight PATs and three of seven field goals was a promising stand-in during Corral's absence last Fall, but Johnson, JC Transfer Brad Cicotti and Gifford Sears, also a transfer, will have their chances.

DEFENSE — Again much emphasis will be on the Bruin defense following a season in which opponents averaged almost 18 points a game and three of the four defeats came on fourth quarter scores, two in the final seconds. However, seven defensive starters do return to action and position changes have been made to strengthen this unit. Jerry Robinson, 209, 6-2½, a two-time consensus All-American (the only one of his kind in UCLA history) is now gunning for every honor, including the Heisman Award. Robinson, who has started his last 23 games and running mate Jeff Muro, who started nine last season, will fill the inside linebacking spots as well as anyone in the country, and they can range from sideline to sideline. Big Manu Tuiasosopo, after a tough injury year, despite starting 10 games, hopes to get back on the All-America trail, but now as a top nose guard instead of defensive tackle. Billy Don Jackson, 240, 6-2½, and now a sophomore will be at left tackle and ready for a big season that most football fans have predicted for him. He will team with Senior Don Hopwood, who improved considerably last season. Kenny Easley, Bobby Hosea and Johnny Lynn all return to the defensive backfield and are among the best. In addition, there is considerable depth here. Robinson, Muro and Easley were in the top five UCLA defensive players statistically last season, but the other two, outside linebackers Frank Stephens and John Fowler have graduated—and therein lies one of Coach Donahue's major problems as he goes into the 1978 season. Three of Donahue's top four outside linebackers, Chris Elias, Glenn Windom and Brad Plemmons, are all untested sophomores, promising though they are. They will team with senior Ken Walker, going into the season; and come-through performances will be most welcome. In general, however, it appears that the Bruins will be strong in down linemen, inside linebacking and secondary.

OFFENSIVE LINE — The Bruins have three seniors who started 11 games in '77, left Tackle Max Montoya, 285, 6-4¼, Center Brent Boyd, 240, 6-3, but coming off a foot operation; and right guard Jim Main, 250, 6-3, the latter a winner of the UCLA Coaches' Award as the team's outstanding offensive lineman last year. Most positions appear to be wide-open races. Top competition for these three are Letterman Curt Mohl, Scott Reid and Ron Wollard, in that order. At left Guard Sophomore Larry Lee, 269, 6-2½, junior Letterman Ron Davis, 234, 6-2¼, and Vic Mayer, a 240, 6-4, sophomore all have a shot at that position. The same is true at right tackle although three-time letterman Bruce Davis has an edge over Sophomore Gregg Christiansen, 260, 6-5.

FALL ENROLLEES — For the second straight year, the Bruin coaches signed an outstanding group of high school seniors to letters of intent. Seven of the Bruin freshmen-to-be were rated "four-star" prospects by one nationally known prep expert and UCLA was the only team to sign that many "four stars." Just how many will make the 1978 UCLA depth chart is anyone's guess, but there could be another Kenny Easley or Billy Don Jackson among them. Sixteen of the signees earned post-season prep All-America recognition of some kind, eight of them first team. The first stringers include: Eric Brown, sl, from Bethel Hi, Hampton, Va.; Danny Dufour, rg, Classical Hi, Lynn, Mass.; Darryl Green, lh, West Hi, Bakersfield; Luis Sharpe, lt, South-

The following won several league, city, county and state honors as preps: Mike Barbee, ng, Rio Americano Hi, Sacramento; Willie Curran, fl, Crespi Hi, Encino; Mike Durden, fl, Helix Hi, LaMesa; Anthony Edgar, rc, Bell Hi, Los Angeles; Isaac Gordon, olb, Killian Hi, Miami, Fla.; Brian Graham, lc, Granite Hills, El Cajon; Rex Gray, olb, Palm Springs Hi; Rich Gray, olb, El Camino Real Hi, Woodland Hills; Norm Johnson, pk-p, Pacifica Hi, Garden Grove; Robert Leggins, ilb, Locke Hi, Los Angeles; Larry Oats, ilb, Verbum Dei Hi, Los Angeles; Tom Sheffield, fl, Esperanza Hi, Anaheim; Larry Thomas, lc, Polytechnic Hi, Riverside; Jojo Townsell, sl, Hug Hi, Reno, Nev.; Al Vernon, olb, Monterey Hi.

THE GENERAL OULOOK — Coach Terry Donahue says: "One of the strengths of the 1978 UCLA team is the number of returning lettermen on the offensive football team. Of course six of them were regular starters at what we'd call very much key positions. Having our returning center, quarterback and top two running backs should insure us of good familiarity between these players. In addition we have two excellent returning interior linemen. Our main concern and area for improvement is at the outside linebacking spots, where we lost three of our top four, two of them starters. You can't have a weakness here and have a good defense. I think the Pac-10 Conference will be the toughest in the country. The expansion simply puts more pressure on all teams to win. It will be a really close race this year. Naturally, you have to go with the champion, Washington, until they are defeated. But a lot of teams will be capable—USC, Arizona State, UCLA—any team probably will be able to beat any other team on a given Saturday."

In Third Year as Head Coach . . .

TERRY DONAHUE

(UCLA '67)

. . . And Already a Solid Winner

UCLA

In just two years, UCLA's Terry Donahue has established a winning tradition as its head football coach. In fact, he is winning at a greater rate than just about any coach in Bruin history.

In two years, he has complied a record of 16-6-1 for a winning percentage of .717. Only one other Bruin coach, Tommy Prothro, ever won more games in his first two years as Bruin head man. In addition, Donahue's career winning percentage has been bettered by just one man, the late Red Sanders.

During his two seasons at the helm, the Bruins have compiled a record of 11-3 in the tough Pacific-8 (now Pac-10) Conference and have narrowly missed a Rose Bowl bid both seasons. Last year, it took a field goal with two seconds remaining in the season finale to keep the Bruins away from Pasadena, despite the fact the Bruins suffered key injuries early in the year and were just 2-3 after five games.

Week in and week out, Donahue showed he knows how to motivate his players to give their best. For five straight weeks, the Bruins won conference games when a loss would have eliminated them from the race. And in the final game of the season, Donahue and the Bruins came from 16 points down to take a one point lead, only to see it disappear with the last second field goal.

In 1976, Donahue's first as the Bruin head coach, the team was undefeated for the first 10 weeks of the year, finishing with a 9-2-1 mark. That team earned a berth in the Liberty Bowl, was ranked second in the country at one point and finished second nationally in both scoring and rushing and fourth in total offense.

Donahue became the only Bruin coach ever to win nine games in his rookie season, bettering the mark of eight set by Tommy Prothro in 1965.

Some people were surprised when the young head coach (Donahue was just 31 when appointed in February of 1976) was selected, but athletic director J.D. Morgan never doubted Donahue could handle the job. He named Donahue as UCLA's 13th head coach just three days after the departure of Dick Vermeil to the Philadelphia Eagles.

From the moment he moved into the head coach's office, Donahue showed he has what it takes to be successful in the coaching field. A man who believes that hard work results in success, Donahue has passed this attitude along to his assistant coaches and players. The results are evident.

In his two years, Donahue has shown he is not afraid to change something when he feels it can be bettered. Midway through the 1977 season, the Bruins installed a double-wing formation in their offense with fine results. This year, the Bruins will employ Donahue's "Multiple Veer" offense which includes the Veer, the Double-wing and the I formations.

Besides being an outstanding offensive tactician (he helped Vermeil install the Veer offense in 1974), Donahue has the ability to relate to his players and makes an effort to know each and every one of them. There is a closeness between Terry and his players because he remembers he was in their place just over a decade ago.

The Bruin head coach has also established himself as an excellent recruiter. In their two full seasons together, Donahue and his coaches have recruited two freshman groups ranked among the top 10 nationally by one prep expert. The 1977 group was judged to be the nation's finest.

Donahue first became associated with UCLA in the mid-1960's, when he played for Tommy Prothro's first two UCLA squads (1965-66). From his defensive tackle position he helped lead the Bruins to their memorable 14-12 upset win over Michigan State in the 1966 Rose Bowl.

He started 21 straight games during 1965 and 1966 while the Bruins compiled records of 8-2-1 and 9-1 during those two years. Following graduation, Terry became one of the country's youngest major college assistants when, at the age of 23, he joined Pepper Rodgers' staff at the University of Kansas. At KU the young coach was in charge of the defensive line.

COACH DONAHUE

He stayed with Rodgers for four years at Kansas and then made the move back to his alma mater with Rodgers for the 1971 football season.

At UCLA, Donahue switched to the offensive line. He served in this capacity for three years under Rodgers (1971-73) and two years under Vermeil (1974-75). Among the Bruins Donahue has coached as either head man or assistant are center-guard Randy Cross, quarterback Jeff Dankworth and safety Oscar Edwards—all first-team All-American players—and linebacker Jerry Robinson, the only two-time consensus All-American in UCLA history.

Terry is also the only man every to play and coach in a Rose Bowl as a Bruin, having started in the 1966 game and coached in the 1976 contest. He would like to become the first man ever to participate as a player, assistant and head coach while a Bruin, hopefully this season.

Donahue's appointment as UCLA's 13th head coach marked only the third time that a UCLA player had been named head coach of his alma mater. The other two were Bert LaBrucherie and George Dickerson.

Born in Los Angeles on June 24, 1944, Terrence Michael Donahue began his athletic career at Notre Dame High School in Sherman Oaks where he starred as a linebacker. After playing freshman ball at San Jose State, Donahue returned to the San Fernando Valley where he spent one year at Los Angeles Valley College but did not play football.

He then came to UCLA in 1964 as a "walk-on" football player. He didn't see action in his first season as a Bruin offensive lineman but with his move to the defensive line early in 1965, he earned a starting spot and held it for two years. At 6-0, 195 pounds he lacked size but more than made up for it with desire and hard work.

Donahue is married to the former Andrea Sogas, whom he met and married while coaching at Kansas. They are the proud parents of two daughters, Nicole Denise, 6, and Michele Lynn, 3. The Donahue family currently resides in Westlake Village.

THE COACHING STAFF

(In Alphabetical Order)

FOSTER ANDERSEN

(UCLA '62)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Now in his second season on the UCLA coaching staff, Foster Andersen has switched from defense to offense. Andersen is in charge of the offensive tackles and tight ends after coaching the defensive backs last season. He came to UCLA in June, 1977 after three years on the USC staff.

The 38-year-old Andersen lettered three times as a Bruin offensive and defensive tackle (1959–61) and was a starter on the 1961 squad that faced Minnesota in the 1962 Rose Bowl. He earned All-Coast second team and All-AAWU second team status as a senior. The Bruins compiled a record of 19–10–2 during his three years.

Andersen is the only Bruin coach other than Donahue to play and coach in the Rose Bowl, having played in the 1962 contest and coached in the 1975 and 1977 games. He began his coaching career as a Bruin graduate assistant in 1962 and then spent one season as an assistant at Pasadena City College.

In 1964 Andersen entered the Army, serving until mid-1967. He earned the rank of captain during his hitch and spent one year as a military adviser in Vietnam.

Following his discharge, he spent another season at PCC (1967) and two years (1968–69) as defensive coordinator at East Los Angeles College. He also earned a master's degree in history from Cal State Los Angeles in 1968.

In 1970 Andersen became the defensive coordinator at Cal State Los Angeles. After one season he became the head coach at CSLA, a post he held through the 1973 season.

In 1974 he served as a part-time assistant at USC. The following season he became a full-time assistant. In 1976, both his outside linebackers won All-Coast first team honors.

GARY BLACKNEY

(Connecticut '67)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Gary Blackney, one of three 1977 defensive coordinators on the Bruin coaching staff, is in his first season with the Bruins. Gary is in charge of the UCLA defensive backs.

Blackney, 33, came to UCLA from the University of Wisconsin where he coached for three years, tutoring the Badger defensive backs. Last year, Wisconsin ranked sixth in the nation in pass defense. In 1975, his first at Wisconsin, the Badgers placed third in the country in this area.

In addition to his secondary chores, he served as the Wisconsin defensive coordinator a year ago.

Gary has a well-rounded background in the coaching profession. Prior to moving to Wisconsin, he spent two years (1973-74) at the University of Rhode Island, coaching the offensive backs, quarterbacks and receivers. In his first year, R.I. had its highest scoring offensive team in school history.

A 1967 graduate of the University of Connecticut, Blackney began his coaching career during the 1966 season by coaching the quarterbacks and offensive backs on his alma mater's freshman team. He held this job for four seasons before moving to Brown University. At Brown, he was in charge of the defensive backs during his three years (1970-72) and in his second season, Brown ranked fourth in the nation in pass defense.

While coaching the Connecticut freshmen, Gary also earned his Master of Science degree in Physical Education (June 1968). In addition, he is now 30 graduate hours beyond a Master's Degree in Educational Administration from Connecticut and Rhode Island.

At Connecticut, Blackney earned two letters in football. He was a three-sport star at Plainview (N.Y.) High School, lettering in football, basketball and baseball (three each).

Gary and his wife, the former Lauretta Cross, have four children, Deborah, 11, David, 10, Kyle, 3, and Gary, Jr., born June 16, 1978. The Blackneys now reside in Thousand Oaks.

BOB FIELD

(Arkansas '71)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Good assistant coaches are a valuable commodity, but assistant head coaches are even rarer. Bob Field, in his first season as coach of UCLA outside linebackers, fits into this category.

Prior to joining the UCLA staff, Field was a member of the Mississippi State University coaching staff. Last season, in addition to his other duties, he served as the Bulldog assistant head coach.

In all, Field spent five seasons at Mississippi State coaching the defensive backs. He did double duty by also serving as defensive coordinator, giving the Bruins three 1977 defensive coordinators on their staff this season.

Field, 29, gained valuable experience during his collegiate playing career at Arkansas. He was a three-year (1968-70) letterman for Frank Broyles and became a regular in the defensive backfield midway through his sophomore season. In his three years on the varsity, the Razorbacks compiled a record of 28-5, including a Sugar Bowl victory over Georgia.

An outstanding high school athlete at Farwell (Tex.) High School, Field earned four letters in football, three in basketball and two in track.

Bob assisted Broyles with Razorback Spring Practice in 1971 before joining the staff of Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama. He spent two seasons (1971-72) assisting in the coaching of the Crimson Tide secondary and Alabama won the Southeastern Conference championship both years.

Mississippi State was Field's next stop. During his five years he coached the secondary, was defensive coordinator and finally in 1977, was elevated to the position of assistant head coach. In 1974, he helped the Bulldogs to a Sun Bowl victory over North Carolina, 26-24.

Field is married to the former Judy Hurley and they have two sons, Kyle 5, and Brian, 3. The Fields now reside in Westlake Village.

(Gettysburg College '70)
Assistant Varsity Coach
and Defensive Coordinator

Whether he's on the field or on the recruiting trail, Jed Hughes is usually successful at whatever he tries. Now in his third season as coach of the Bruin inside linebackers, the former Stanford and Michigan assistant is also serving as defensive coordinator for the second straight year.

Hughes is also an excellent recruiter who has had a lot to do with the Bruins' out-of-state success the past two years.

He has now coached All-America linebackers in three straight seasons (Michigan's Calvin O'Neal in 1975 and UCLA's Jerry Robinson in 1976 and 1977). In his three seasons in Ann Arbor (1973–75) Michigan compiled a record of 28–3–3. Add last year's (7-4) Bruin effort to 1976's record of 9-2-1 and teams Hughes has been associated with in the past five years are 44–9–4.

He coached two seasons at Stanford (1971–72) during which the Cardinals posted a mark of 15–8, including a 1972 Rose Bowl victory over Michigan, 13–12.

A graduate of Gettysburg (Pa.) College in Biology and Physical Education in 1970, Hughes received his Masters Degree in Education from Stanford and his Ph.D. in Education Administration from Michigan in 1975. He was born Nov. 14, 1947 in New York City.

Hughes attended Newark (N.J.) Academy prior to going to Gettysburg College, competing in basketball, baseball, and football, captaining the latter two sports and winning All-New Jersey State baseball honors for three years. After graduation, he coached and taught at Biglerville (Pa.) High one year (1970).

The 30-year-old Hughes is married to the former Carol Reaver of Gettysburg, Pa.

DOUG KAY

(Western Illinois University '60)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Doug Kay, in his second year on the UCLA coaching staff, is in his first season tutoring the Bruin defensive linemen. Last year he did an excellent job working with the outside linebackers.

Kay came to Westwood from San Jose State where he served as offensive coordinator of the PCAA champions in 1976. Prior to that he spent five years (1971–75) as head coach at Olivet (Mich.) College. At Olivet he compiled a record of 32–10–2.

The 42-year-old Kay, born in Evanston, Ill., was a three-sport star at Libertyville (Ill.) Hi. He earned a total of 12 letters in football, baseball and basketball. After a military stint Kay attended Western Illinois University, graduating in 1960. While at WIU he lettered four times in football and twice in baseball.

Upon graduation, he served as an assistant coach for one season at WIU (1960). The following year Kay became coach at Deerfield (Ill.) Hi. In six seasons (1961–1966) his teams compiled a record of 35–13–1, including three straight 8–0 seasons (1964–66).

Kay then moved to Terra Haute, Ind., where he spent four seasons (1967–70) as defensive coordinator at Indiana State University. From there it was on to Olivet.

He and his wife, Connie, have two children, Kimber, 16, and Bart, 15. The Kays reside in Thousand Oaks.

BILLIE MATTHEWS

(Southern University '52)
Assistant Varsity Coach

Billie Matthews, now in his eighth season as a UCLA assistant coach, is without a doubt, the most successful running back coach in school history. This is his third season under Terry Donahue after serving three with Pepper Rodgers (1971–73) and two with Dick Vermeil (1974–75).

This is Billie's seventh season coaching the Bruin running backs (he was the defensive secondary coach his first year). When Matthews took over in 1972, the school rushing record was 892 yards by Sam Brown. Under Billie's guidance, that total has been surpassed six times. He also has four 1,000 yard seasons (Wendell Tyler twice, Kermit Johnson and Theotis Brown once) to his credit.

He came to UCLA with Rodgers from Kansas where he had coached one year (1970) and coached running backs John Riggins and Delvin Williams. Previously, he had an outstanding 12-year (1958–69) prep coaching career at Kashmere High in Houston, Tex.

A star quarterback at Southern University in Baton Rouge, La., he led his team to an 11–0 record and the National Black championship as a freshman in 1948. During his four years, Southern compiled an amazing 37–4 record.

Billie prepped at Phyllis Wheatley High in Houston where he lettered in football and basketball. He won All-State honors at quarterback.

He and his wife, the former Gene Woods, have four children, Jacqueline, Kenneth, Kennette and Karen. Ken Adams, Billie's stepson, was a split end for three years (1969–71) at California.

DWAIN PAINTER

(Rutgers '64)
Assistant Varsity Coach

UCLA

Now in his third season as coach of the UCLA quarterbacks and receivers, Dwain Painter continues to show why he is considered one of the top men in his field.

In 1976, he helped Bruin quarterback Jeff Dankworth earn first team All-America honors. In 1977, he helped Rick Bashore become only the second UCLA sophomore ever to pass for over 1,000 yards in a single season.

Before coming to UCLA, the 35-year old Painter spent two seasons at Brigham Young University, one year at College of San Mateo (1973) and two at San Jose State (1971–72). In 1972, he coached the nation's top pass receiver (Jay Miller, 100 receptions).

In 1974, he coached the country's No. 2 passing quarterback, Gary Shiede, who averaged 16.5 completions a game. Shiede led BYU to the Western Athletic Conference championship and a berth in the Fiesta Bowl. In 1975, Painter worked with an outstanding sophomore QB, Gifford Nielsen, at BYU. Nielsen set a new WAC record for completion percentage (.611).

He also played quarterback and defensive back at Rutgers University where, in 1961, he played on the school's first undefeated team. He received his B.S. degree and also his Masters Degree in Education at Rutgers.

He prepped at Gateway High in Monroeville, Pa., where he lettered in three sports, football, baseball and basketball. He was born in Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb. 13, 1942.

He and his wife, Diane, have two children, Deborah, 15, and Doug, 6.

DON RILEY

(East Tennessee State '56)
Assistant Varsity Coach

UCLA

Don Riley has to figure 1978 will be his lucky year. This is his 13th year as a collegiate assistant coach, his third at UCLA. He is once again in charge of the Bruin offensive guards and centers.

In addition to 13 years experience at the collegiate level, Riley also put in nine years in the prep ranks to make a total of 22 years of coaching.

Before coming to UCLA in 1976, Riley spent four years at Oklahoma State (1972–75) where he coached with former Bruin assistant Frank Gansz. Prior to that, he spent six years at Vanderbilt (1966–71).

Following graduation from East Tennessee State University in Johnson City in 1956, he coached first at Lynch, Ky., High, his alma mater, for three years (1956–58); one year (1959) at East Tennessee State; and then six years (1960–65) as head coach and athletic director at Greenville, Tenn., High. Incidentally, in nine years of prep coaching his teams won 70 per cent of their games.

A fine athlete, he was an All-Kentucky State quarterback at Lynch High where he also lettered in baseball and basketball. He then went to Lamar (Colo.) Junior College where he starred at quarterback one year. He then transferred to East Tennessee State where he played QB for three years. He also played baseball there one year.

Born in Dungannon, Va., he is married to the former Carol Pierce of Lynch. They have three children, Donna, 17, Karen, 14, and Roger, 11.

BRUINS CAN BOAST OF 32 FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

Here is UCLA's list of 32 first team All-Americans down through the years, headed by quarterback Gary Beban who also won the coveted 1967 Heisman Trophy awarded annually to the "Outstanding Collegiate Football Player in the United States, and senior linebacker Jerry Robinson, the only two-time consensus All-American in UCLA history.

In addition to Robinson, the Bruins can boast of two other two-time All-Americans, center/linebacker Donn Moomaw in both 1950 and '52 and fullback Bob Davenport in 1954 and '55.

UCLA's 60th YEAR OF FOOTBALL

This is UCLA's 60th year of playing intercollegiate football. During this span the Bruins have developed from an athletic nonentity to one of the country's foremost all-around athletic powers, a university which strives for and attains excellence in both academics and athletics. The Bruins go into this 1978 season with an all-time football record of 313 wins, 223 losses and 30 ties for a .580 winning percentage.

This is Terry Donahue's third season as UCLA's 13th football coach. The others were Fred Cozens (1919), Harry Trotter (1920–22), James Cline (1923–24), Bill Spaulding (1925–38), Babe Horell (1939–44), Bert LaBrucherie (1945–48), Red Sanders (1949–57), George Dickerson and Bill Barnes (1958), Bill Barnes (1959–64), Tommy Prothro (1965–70), Pepper Rodgers (1971–73) and Dick Vermeil (1974–75).

TOP UCLA CROWDS (1944–77)

Since 1944, the UCLA Bruins have played before 80,000 or more fans 39 times, topped by the 1976 Rose Bowl crowd of 105,464. Of the 39 games, 27 have been played in the Coliseum, led by the 1954 confrontation with USC that drew 102,548. The largest Coliseum night game attendance is 92,962 for the Bruins' 1946 St. Mary's contest.

UCLA'S 20TH YEAR IN PAC-10

UCLA has been a member of the Pacific-10 Conference since it was organized July 1, 1959, and was originally called the Athletic Association of Western Universities. The other founding members were California, Stanford, USC and Washington. Washington State became a member July 1, 1962. Oregon and Oregon State became members July 1, 1964 and the league was officially named the Pacific-8. On July 1, 1978, Arizona and Arizona State joined the conference and the league officially became the Pacific-10. Here is UCLA's grid record against traditional Pac-10 rivals since 1959:

California	16	3	0	USC	6	12	1
Oregon	7	1	0	Washington	7	12	0
Oregon State	8	2	1	Wash. State	11	0	0
Stanford	13	4	2	UCLA Totals	68	34	4

UCLA-CHEVROLET TV SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

Following is a list of UCLA Bruins who have been selected offensive or defensive Player of the Game on a national or regional telecast since the award was originated in 1971. In honor of the selectee, Chevrolet awards a $1,000 scholarship in the player's name for use in his school's general scholarship fund.

Entering his senior season, All-American Jerry Robinson has already been honored twice. Quarterback John Sciarra was selected three times while playing for the Bruins.

UCLA'S SINGLE-SEASON 'TOP 10' IN TEN INDIVIDUAL CATEGORIES

Here are UCLA's single-season "Top 10" leaders in ten individual categories, including ball-carrying, passing, total offense, pass receiving, punting, scoring, punt returning, kickoff returning, rushing attempts and pass intercepting.

These records are from 1942 through 1977, although a few categories, as noted, go back a few more years. An 'early' (before the time span listed) accomplishment is listed at the end of the specific category. (1978 players in bold face.)

HISTORY OF UCLA

UCLA, approaching its 60th anniversary next year and its 50th year on the Westwood campus, has compiled an unusual record for such a young institution.

Its greatest reknown lies in the academic field; in its short history it has achieved a firm position in the top dozen American universities, a distinction confirmed by national surveys of the American Council on Education.

UCLA's predecessor, the Los Angeles State Normal School, dated back to 1881, but it was not until 1919 that it was replaced by a branch (and named, in fact, the Southern Branch) of the University of California.

Growing into a four-year institution in 1924, and changing its name to UCLA in 1927, the university moved to its present campus in 1929, added graduate studies in 1933, and soon began to make a name for itself in the academic world.

Today the school's handsome 411-acre campus is the site of 75 permanent buildings and 30 major additions. In recent years, UCLA has had the largest enrollment among the nine campuses of the University of California, and its graduate enrollment for fall, 1977, was ninth largest in the nation.

Some indication of UCLA's national ranking in research can be found in the level of Federal support of the institution, including funds for research contracts as well as fellowships, training grants and other academic projects. In total Federal support for fiscal 1976, UCLA was fourth in the nation with $74,717,000.

Underlying UCLA's academic and research leadership are facilities which serve the scholar and researcher well. One of the features of the $380,000,000 campus is a teaching hospital (operated in conjunction with the UCLA School of Medicine) which was ranked seventh in the nation in a national survey of physicians conducted by the AMA's Today's Health.

Another key facility is the university's library, with the largest collection in the southwest, some 3,750,000 volumes. Still another important adjunct to a major university is its computing capacity, and UCLA's Campus Computing Network is one of the major computer centers in the country. It is used both in research and instruction, with one engineering course training 2,000 students per year in computer use.

In science, the university has such special facilities as a 100 kw. nuclear reactor, a linear accelerator, and laboratories for the study of plasma physics and dating of ancient objects by means of isotopes.

No less impressive are the facilities in the arts, which include the remarkable ethnic art collection of the Museum of Cultural History and the collection of 400 exotic musical instruments by the Department of Music.

A strong faculty, working in this unusual setting, helps to produce graduates who represent the sophisticated manpower needed by California. UCLA students, admitted under high entrance requirements, have demonstrated unusual accomplishment in the classroom as well as on the athletic field.

(UC Riverside '55)
UCLA Chancellor

UCLA Chancellor Charles E. Young is, at 46, the youngest of the University of California's nine chancellors, only two of whom have been in office longer than his ten years of service.

An enegetic administrator, he has guided UCLA successfully through the difficult periods of student unrest and reduced budgets, providing vigorous leadership in the effort to add to the university's academic distinction through endowed chairs and other outside financial support.

Chancellor Young attended high school and junior college in his native San Bernardino before serving in the U.S. Air Force in the Korean War. Returning from Japan as a sargeant he reentered civilian life and married his childhood sweetheart Sue Daugherty. He and Mrs. Young are the parents of two children, Charles, Jr., now 23, and Elizabeth Susan, 17. To complete his college education, Dr. Young enrolled in the newly-opened U.C. Riverside and became its first student body president in 1955.

For his graduate work, he moved to UCLA, where he earned the M.A. (1957) and the Ph.D. (1960), both in political science.

After a year in Washington D.C., on a Congressional Fellowship, he returned to California in 1959 to join the staff of UC President Clark Kerr.

For about a year he served as staff assistant to the academic team drawing up the Master Plan for Higher Education in California, worked on the University Growth Plan, and studied decentralization of the University. He also taught political science on the Davis campus of the University in the spring of 1960.

CHANCELLOR YOUNG

In the fall of 1960, after Dr. Franklin Murphy had become UCLA chancellor, he chose as his assistant the young man-on-the-go. In 1962 Dr. Young took another step up the administrative ladder to become assistant chancellor, and in 1963 he became a vice chancellor, with responsibilities for administrative, budgetary and student problems.

In 1968, when Dr. Murphy resigned to become the chief executive officer of the Times Mirror Company, the Regents turned to Dr. Young to lead the campus which he had served with energy and perception.

Chancellor Young's interest in top performance extends beyond purely academic concerns to other fields, including athletics, and he has been quoted as saying, "excellence in the classroom and in the laboratory are compatible with excellence on the playing field and in the gymnasium."

Part of his interest in athletics arises from his own background as a high school football player. He still attends most UCLA football and basketball games and those track meets held in Drake stadium on the UCLA campus, and he can often be seen roaming the sidelines of the field, an enthusiast deeply involved in the fortunes of the team.

(Harvard '55)

Faculty Athletic Representative

UCLA's Faculty Athletic Representative, Prof. Douglas S. Hobbs, has just finished a year as president of the Council of the Pacific Eight (starting this year, read Ten) and will serve during 1978-79 as a member of the NCAA Division I Steering Committee, which initiates policy recommendations for action by the association's annual convention.

Working with faculty representatives of the other member schools, he helps to shape matters of athletic policy and to approve legislative action of the Pacific Ten Conference as well as to help determine the eligibility of student athletes.

His duties also include membership on the UCLA Athletic and Recreational Policies Commission, and he is UCLA's representative to two women's organizations, the West Coast Athletic Association (WCAA) and the Association for Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (AIAW).

An associate professor of political science with a specialty in American Constitutional law, Dr. Hobbs enjoys his work in athletics and is a longtime spectator at UCLA athletic events. He says, "Since joining the UCLA faculty in 1964, I've missed only one home football game." On that occasion, Gary Beban broke his leg during the struggle with Stanford, and Dr. Hobbs is resolved not to court such disasters by his absence. He also rarely misses a basketball game in Pauley Pavilion.

He competed in track and basketball at Great Neck, N.Y., High School and also, as he puts it, "Played without distinction on Harvard's freshman basketball team."

A native of Rochester, N.Y., Dr. Hobbs was educated at Harvard University, receiving his A.B., magna cum laude, in 1955 and his Ph.D. in 1966. He was a Robert Treat Paine Fellow there in 1958-59, a Graduate Fellow in 1959-60 and a Teaching Fellow in Government in 1959-62 and 1963-64. He has taught at UCLA since 1964.

He has won three teaching honors at UCLA, the 1968 and 1975 Pi Sigma Alpha Awards for Distinguished Teaching in Political Science, and the UCLA Alumni Association's Distinguished Teaching Award in 1969.

Professor Hobbs served on active duty as an officer in the U.S. Navy from 1955-58 and in 1962-63. He served as a Navigator on board a destroyer and later as Communications Officer and staff secretary on the Staff of Destroyer Squadron Eight. He left the Naval Reserve as a Lieutenant Commander in 1965.

Dr. Hobbs is married and he and his wife Jane live in Brentwood, a residential area a few miles from the Westwood campus.

J. D. MORGAN

(UCLA '41)

Director of Athletics

J. D. Morgan has now completed 15 years — July 1, 1963 through July 1, 1978 — as UCLA's director of athletics. It has been a remarkable period of achievement and growth for the Bruins, a period during which they've won an unprecedented 28 NCAA team championships and made three post-season bowl football appearances, two Rose Bowl victories over No. 1 rated Michigan State in 1966 and over No. 1 rated Ohio State in 1976 and a Liberty Bowl loss to Alabama in 1976.

Incidentally, this is the most NCAA titles ever won by a university and an athletic director over such a span: 10 in basketball (1964-65-67-68-69-70-71-72-73-75); six in volleyball (1970-71-72-74-75-76); five in tennis (1965-70-71-75-76); four in track and field (1966-71-72-73) and three in water polo (1969-71-72).

But UCLA's entire 18-sport program has been most successful under his astute guidance and leadership since he succeeded the late Wilbur Johns in 1963.

In addition, his tenure has been highlighted by the move of the Athletic Department into new and permanent quarters, the return of Bruin basketball to the campus in Pauley Pavilion, opening of a new boathouse for crew at Marina del Rey and the opening in 1969 of Drake Stadium, a beautiful track and field facility.

He has been at UCLA since 1946 employed in the positions of accountant, associate business manager, tennis coach and now athletic director.

Morgan's tennis coaching career, in which he turned out 16 straight winning seasons, was featured by no less than seven NCAA team championships (1952-53-54-56-60-61-65) and four national runner-up teams (1962-63-64-66). He coached eight NCAA singles or doubles champions, including Arthur Ashe, Ian Crookenden, Allen Fox, Larry Huebner, Ron Livingston, Larry Nagler, Charles Pasarell and Bob Perry. He retired from coaching following the 1966 season.

In 1966, J.D. was cited for "outstanding professional achievement in the field of athletics" at UCLA's Anniversary Day ceremonies. In 1973, he was honored by the Columbus (Ohio) Touchdown Club as "Athletic Director of Distinction."

J.D. is highly respected, both nationally and in the Pacific-10 Conference, as a top athletic administrator. He is a member of the prestigious NCAA Executive Committee. In addition, he is Chairman of the NCAA Professional Liaison Committee and the NCAA's representative member to the Executive Board of the United States Collegiate Sports Council which governs the World University Games. He is treasurer of this organization.

He's also on the National Football Hall of Fame's "Honors Court," as well as being a permanent member of the Rose Bowl Administrative Committee.

And he's now the senior member, from the standpoint of service, of the Pacific-10 Conference Council.

He was born in Newcastle, Okla., on March 3, 1919. He attended Cordell, Okla., High School where he was an outstanding four-sport athlete in football, basketball, baseball and tennis. Then, at UCLA he was a four-year letterman in tennis, serving as 1941 team captain and No. 1 player. A back injury kept him from playing football for the Bruins.

Morgan graduated from UCLA's School of Business Administration in 1941. During World War II he commanded a Navy torpedo boat.

He is married to the former Cynthia Gray Crane, who is active in University women's affairs. They have a son, Kevin and a daughter, Pamela.

FIVE BRUINS HONORED

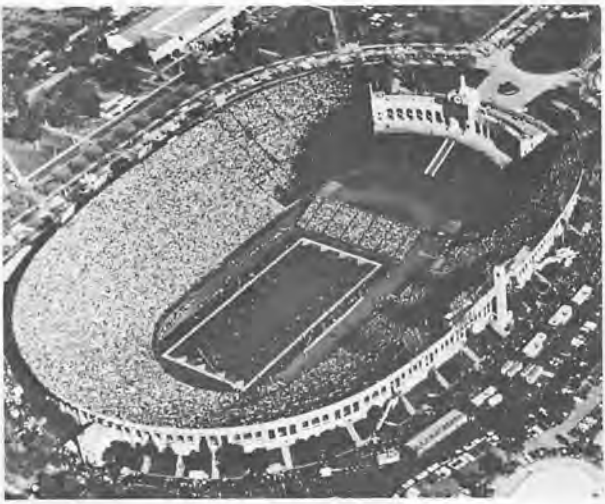
Five UCLA football Bruins have received the honor of having their uniform number permanently retired. Needless to say, they are five of the greatest players ever to wear the Blue and Gold.

The five are: No. 13, Kenny Washington, halfback, 1937–39; No. 16, Gary Beban, quarterback, 1965–67; No. 34, Paul Cameron, single wing tailback, 1951–53; No. 38, Burr Baldwin, offensive end, 1941–42 and 1946; and No. 80, Donn Moomaw, linebacker, 1950–52.

Washington earned fame as UCLA's first All-America player while Beban is the only Bruin ever to win the Heisman Trophy as the country's outstanding player. Moomaw is one of just three Bruins ever to be a first team All-America choice twice while Cameron and Baldwin were consensus choices once.

Washington and Cameron rank in UCLA's all-time career top 10's in rushing, passing and total offense while Beban still ranks second in passing and first in total offense.

THE BEAUTIFUL HOME OF UCLA's FOOTBALL BRUINS



Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum

- One of the World's Premier Stadiums . . .
- Site of the 1932 Olympic Games . . .
- Compact Capacity = 71,433
- Full Capacity = 92,604

The Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum may be 55 years old, but it is continuously being improved. In fact, in the past 31 years, some $10 million improvements have been made to maintain the Coliseum's position among the super stadia of the world.

The 92,604 seating capacity includes 74,017 theater-type seats and only 18,587 remaining bench-type seats.

The Coliseum, built in 1923 and enlarged for the Olympic Games in 1932, is best known as the world's greatest football stadium, the home of not one, not two but three top teams, UCLA, USC and Los Angeles Rams. No other facility in the world has three such major grid tenants.

There are 90 entrances equipped with 74 turnstiles for easy access and exit of the facility. A modern press box sits high atop the south rim of the Coliseum. It has three levels serviced by a private elevator. The seating capacity is 216 on the first and second levels only.

A Coliseum Commission, with William Robertson currently serving as president, oversees the facility for the State of California, County of Los Angeles and City of Los Angeles. Jim Hardy is the general manager, assisted by Jerry Nielsen.
